DOROTHY TENNANT'S

FIRST MRS. CATTS COMING

Heard Actress's Bridegroom Was Prosperous and Will Demand Her Alimony.

Robert M. Catts, whose marriage with perethy Tennant, the actress, was announced yesterday after it had been kept quiet for seven months, spent several days in the last two weeks undergoing examination in supplementary proceedings. A Japanese who lived with him for two years got a judgment last March against him for $339.52 and Catts has not paid it yet. In his answers to the questions which the examining put to him he explains that there is a good reason why.

Miss Tennant, it appears, has lent him more than $1,300. Moreover, It is Miss Tennant who pays the bills at 134 Riverside Drive, where they live, and it was Miss Tennant who furnished the rooms. Catts explains that his usiness with the Straight Filament Lamp Company, at 125 West Fortysecond street, has brought him in about $2.25 in the last three months. These things appear in his sworn testimony.

catts's former wife read in the papers esterday morning that Catts not only had married but that he was prosperous. She left Philadelphia last night She says that she will try to keep him in this country, and if necessary she will have him arrested, provided there is any law that will hold him. Catta was expecting, so it was said yesterday, to go abroad next week.

Miss Tennant, he said he got the fare from the Straight Filament Lamp Company. He went on to say that he had no bank account with any bank in New York, but that he had drawn checks The Wednesday matines at the Gaiety on a banking house in Wall street. The child is entitled to the money and I propose to see that she gets it. That is the reason I am leaving for New York; first, to ask him for it, and secondly, to demand it if he doesn't produce it immediately.
"I may embarrass his second wife, but I hope I won't. I shall talk frankly to him, but if that doesn't do I shall have him arrested if there is any law by which he can be arrested."
